3. Training Etiquette

- Lateness: You are required to arrive at the studio on time for training to start. The Whatsapp group is not an appropriate place to let the studio know of any lateness. Should you be running late due to unforeseen circumstances, please contact Yogarise or Erin directly by phone;
- Phones: Mobile phones are not to be used during any classes or modules unless specifically requested (ie. to take a photo or video of a posture);
- Photos/video: You must ask permission from teachers and other trainees before taking photos/videos and /or sharing anything on social media;
- Studio etiquette: Please ensure you leave the studio clean and tidy after your training has ended and during breaks. Remove all rubbish, place props/mats back as they were, and clean any mugs/glasses;
- Illness procedure: Should you experience an illness that prevents you from training, please contact the studio as soon as possible. We will inform the teacher and arrange a suitable time for hours to be made up, or send appropriate homework for you to complete. If required, Erin and some of the faculty members will be available to hold private catch-up sessions for an additional £50/hr.

4. Catch-up procedures

- Not every teacher will want to present their topic as a 121 as they may prefer/require group participation i.e teaching practice/ partner work etc. They may say a private catch-up is not appropriate.
- Some teachers may feel additional reading and writing a synopsis of the key learning points from that reading will suffice. Some teachers may ask you to practice something and write up your reflections. Other topics will be covered via IRL/Live stream lecture and Q&A. The individual teacher will explain the best process to adequately cover their material.
- If a teacher feels their topic can be covered over Zoom that is their call. Some teachers will prefer/require to see you in person.
- If you meet a teacher for an IRL catch up you are welcome to use the studio at Peckham BUT I will need to 'book you in' so please share any dates with me before confirming the date and time with the teacher. The teacher may cancel/rearrange/postpone other work in order to see you so best to ensure the catch-up can go ahead before anyone commits.
- What was a 3-hour TT module does not necessarily need to be a 3-hour catch-up, BUT once again, it is at the teacher's discretion how long the catch-up requires.

- We suggest teachers charge £50 p/hr, paid directly to them not to Yogarise, for a catch-up but I do know that some teachers may charge more for their time.

5. COVID19 precautions and procedures

Yogarise London will be maintaining the highest standard of cleanliness and abide by any Government Guidelines;

- Teacher trainees are required to bring and use their own mat;
- Yogarise has installed new sinks and multiple hand sanitiser stations for optimum hand washing;
- In cases of absence related to COVID-19 we will give you options to catch up, either by joining virtually if you are well enough to do so or by completing further assignments with your mentor.

6. Cancellation policy

We think that it is extremely unlikely that a student will begin the course and subsequently decide not to continue until graduation, however, we understand that in some circumstances this is not possible and students have no choice other than to leave. In this instance, we will be unable to give you a certificate of graduation from the training. Please note your course fees are still due unless an exemption applies. If you feel for any reason unable to continue with the course you should e-mail YTT@yogarise.london as soon as possible.

7. Ethics

As a student and/or graduate of the Yogarise Yoga Teacher Training course, we expect you to:

- adhere to the traditional yoga principles as written in the Yamas and niyamas;
- be honest and straightforward in all your business and personal dealings;
- not to criticise other yoga teachers or any system of yoga;
- continue your yoga studies and personal practice on a regular basis;
- not to discriminate on grounds of race, religion, gender, age, or sexual orientation;
- to respect your students' beliefs and values;
- acknowledge the limitations of your skills and scope of practice and where appropriate, refer students to seek alternative instruction, advice, treatment, or direction.
- vow to uphold the standards of the teachings you have been given, and maintain and promote the good name of yoga at all times and accept that failure to do so may lead to the annulment of any accreditation obtained from Yogarise Teacher Training.

8. Photo Waiver

During the training (Ibiza and London) we will occasionally take photos for use on Yogarise marketing materials including, but not limited to, the website and social media channels. Please ensure you email YTT@yogarise.london if you would prefer your image not to be used.

9. Grievance Procedure

We are dedicated to ensuring that all our trainee teachers enjoy the training experience and feel fully able to participate in all aspects of the learning. We are dedicated to ensuring that no student is treated less favourably than any other on grounds of race, religion, gender, age, or sexual orientation. We recognise that from time to time grievances may arise, and if they do, we are committed to ensuring that they are dealt with quickly and fairly. If you are not happy with how the training is being conducted and have cause for concern we would appreciate it if you could let us know immediately. Your complaint will be considered a confidential matter.

Please contact YTT@yogarise.london to arrange a meeting online, over the phone, or in person.

If you would like to submit a written complaint please send it to YTT@yogarise.london or post it to our mailing address and we will respond within 24 hours of receiving your letter. If a full answer to your query isn't available immediately we will respond with the reasons and provide you with a timeframe by which a full answer is expected.

The Yogarise Team
